ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

GENERAL TRAVEL INFORMATION

The Ghanaian Economy:

Ghana can be located on the West Coast of Africa. To the West she shares a border with Cote d'Ivoire, and is bounded to the East by Togo. Further up North, Ghana shares a border with Burkina Faso and to the South is the Gulf of Guinea. The Ghanaian economy is diverse and historically driven by commodities namely Gold, Cocoa and recently oil. With the discovery of oil and gas deposits, a thriving services industry has emerged. The country's cocoa is famous for its premium quality. Do not miss an opportunity to indulge your taste buds in a made in Ghana chocolate.

Climate:

The climate of Ghana is tropical but temperatures in June is slightly cool with the raining season beginning from April through to October. Generally, temperatures are between 21 (degree Celsius) and 32 (degree Celsius).

The People and Language: Ghana's population is over 29 million with Accra as its capital. English is the official language of Ghana and is universally used. The most widely spoken local languages are Ga, Dagomba, Akan and Ewe.

Ghanaian cuisine:

It is one of the most delicious across West Africa comprising various staples and sauces and soups. From the south to the north, each region has a set of unique foods associated with the history and culture of the people. Notable amongst them is fufu, a staple made from cassava accompanied with soups; kenkey a staple from maize accompanied with fried fish and a spicy sauce, Jollof rice, Ampesi (boiled yam or plantain and palava sauce) and Banku.

Tourism:

Ghana is endowed with a unique natural landscape, which ranges from the savannah in the north, the forest zone in the centre and west, the mountains in the east and coastal plains in the south. There are beautiful tourist sites across the regions. For Accra, we have the Kwame Nkrumah Mausoleum, the Accra Cultural Centre among others. To have a relaxing evening, there is the Osu Oxford Street in Accra where there are all kinds of entertainment places available.

There is also the Africa's first canopy walkway in the Kakum National Park. This is a 350 km long suspended bridge comprised of six tree-platforms and seven connecting spans that stand 30 meters above the forest floor. The Volta Region, the most topographically varied part of Ghana, also hosts some of the most popular attractions such as the sacred monkeys of Tafi Atome, magnificent waterfalls around Amedzofe, the country's highest peak on Mount Afadjato, and the impressive forest-fringed Wli falls.

Ghana has amazing places of interest, the lengthy palm-fringed beaches and safe and accessible villages and community based tourism. Nzulezu, the "Village on water", is located 90 kilometres west of Takoradi with a population size of about 600 people. Aburi Botanical Gardens, Paga crocodile pond and the historic forts and castles are always interesting sites in Ghana.

Religion:

The main religion in Ghana is Christian who accounts for 71.2% of the total population and includes Roman Catholics, Protestants, etc. The Muslim population accounts for 17.6% of the total population and are located chiefly in the northern part of the country. Traditional religions accounts for 5.2% of the population.

Arts and Crafts:

Ghana is a great place for a wide variety of excellent handicrafts, traditional masks, drums and souvenirs of every kind. The colourful ceremonial Kente cloth which is woven by the Ashantis continues to be unique and admired by visitors all over the world. The Adinkra cloth, a dye stained fabric, is also associated strongly with the Ashantis and is often worn during funerals and important occasions. Each of the over 60 Adinkra signs imprinted in the Adinkra cloth has a different proverb assigned to it.

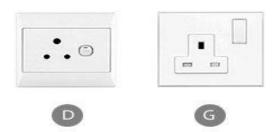

From Bolgatanga and the village of Daboya are the hand-spun Fugu cloth/smocks, as well as straw hats and baskets, which are their specialty. Also of interest are the wide varieties of beads from the Eastern Region of the Country.

Shopping:

The city of Accra has myriad of products and services for sale. There is the Accra Mall, A & C Mall, Achimota Mall and West Hills Mall, where you can get all types of products ranging from clothing, toiletries to groceries among others. There is also the popular Market "Makola" in Accra which is a local market where local foodstuffs and other items like local fabrics are sold. There is the Art Centre where local artefacts are also sold.
